AQUEDUCT MEETING ENDS.

SNOW, RAIN AND SMALL FIELDS THE ORDER OF THE CLOSING DAY'S SPORT.

Athlete Takes the Nassau Handicap—Martin Doyle Too Much for Go Between—Old Bon Mot in Front.

New York, November 15.—The metropolitan season here closed today midst depressing surroundings, it being regular winter weather, snowing hard all the day, but melting as it fell. The fields were small and the racing free from excitement. Miller's ride on Oraculum in the second race was much criticized. There is no truth in the report that James R. Keene is to send Peter Pan and Court Dress to England. Peter Pan is not in the Derby, but Court Dress is in the Oaks. Both De Courcy Forbes and James Rowe declared neither will be sent to England, though Mr. Keene has by no means made up his mind not to race in England again.

The recent meeting at Pimlico is declared to have been the best ever held there and there was an average of twenty-six layers each day so the profits were large. The track was offered to the Washington Jockey Club for its fall meeting, but the officers of that club did not think it would be necessary and it is now too late. Work will go on at the new track at Hazelthorpe, but it will not be ready until next fall.

Go Between made his first appearance in several weeks today and was beaten by Martin Doyle at only four pounds difference. Go Between did not display his old-time resolute way of finishing, but of course, his let-up may be responsible for this. The fourth race was marked by a plunge on Asterisk, which ran last and is all bunged up. Bon Mot, also a resurrected horse, won the fourth race without much trouble.

CELLA'S HORSES AT MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Tenn., November 15.—Twelve yearling thoroughbreds, property of L. A. Cella, reached Montgomery Park today from Belmont Park and were taken charge of by Henry McDaniel, who will train them for the next racing season. The consignment was in charge of Johnny Murphy, who has handled the Cella string during the summer months. Murphy reports an exciting experience at Belmont Park just before shipping. He said that one of the park policemen hearing a noise in the stable approached the stall occupied by a Meadowthorpe filly and was shot at by people unknown, who it is charged were making an effort to steal the Cella juvenile, probably for "ringing" purposes in the future. The arrival of today's shipment increases the Cella string to thirty head and comprises one of the biggest strings in winter quarters here.

BENNETT'S HOME BURNED.

Memphis, Tenn., November 15.—Fire at Ridgeway, the home of George C. Bennett, destroyed the engine house and its contents, entailing a loss of about $3,000. The origin of the blaze is unknown, but it attained such headway before discovered that the fire fighting apparatus of the Bennett place was insufficient to check it. The engine house supplied both residence and the extensive racing stables with water. Mr. Bennett has given orders for immediate rebuilding. Insurance of $1,750 was carried on the building and contents.

DR. LEGGO IS BADLY DEFEATED AGAIN.

Is Odds-On Favorite, but Runs Unplaced—Iddalia and Gauze Reward Confident Support at Latonia.

Cincinnati, O., November 15.—The twenty-second day of the fall meeting could easily be classed as Lexington Day at the course, inasmuch as two separate "killings" were successfully engineered by horsemen from that horse center during the afternoon. The first of these was slipped over by owner Milam, who sent Iddalia to the post in the second, while J. H. Baker, who sent Gauze to the post in the fourth race, probably cleaned up more money for himself and connections by the victory of his plater, the proportions of which exceed any of the coups of the season here. Baker took little pains to disguise the fact that the thought that Gauze was "Hobson's horse" this afternoon and advised a plunge. When the opening price of 8 to 1 was placed against Gauze, Baker's commissioner and those in on the good thing went down the line loading the books to their capacity and gradually the price was cut down point by point until at post call 4½ to 1 was the best obtainable. Knocked to his knees shortly after the start, Gauze gradually picked up his opponents one by one and disposing of the pacemaker, Happy Jack II., in the final furlong. Those in a position to know state that the ring was hit for $10,000 on the race.

The defeat of Dr. Leggo in the fifth race was the severest blow which the talent experienced during the afternoon. Many had been attracted to the course through the presence of the Doctor, which seemed to have been dropped into a soft spot. When it came to the running the Puryear D. colt failed utterly to display great speed at any stage of the journey, finishing a beaten-off fourth.

T. Taylor was fined $50 and set down for the rest of the meeting for pulling up at the start in the last race. Jockey Seder also drew a fine of $25 for disobedience at the post.

M. D. Miller will sell out his entire stable Saturday including Gold Enamel and others. Imposition, belonging to G. Ganter, will also be sold at the same time.

T. L. Pierce has shipped some of the W. Gerst horses to New Orleans. Jockey Henry has been engaged to ride the steeplechasers and left with the stable. Jockey Ambuchon left for Chicago tonight where he will remain until the opening of the New Orleans meeting.

The following horses were sold in the paddock today: Prince of Pless, for $500, to Frank Watson; Dalesman, for $350, to L. M. Blume; Gus Lanka, for $40, to C. H. Tiefenbruch; Suzanne, for $55, to L. Blume; Tucky Jake, for $155, to W. E. Oots; Maurice Davis, for $65, to L. B. Blume; Moonlight Murphy, for $400, to L. Johnson, of St. Louis; Jack Bratton, for $300, to Dr. Kane; Tom Morgan, for $200, to L. Peters; Bunchy, for $200, to Tom Martin; Rebounder, for $550, to Dr. Dodds; Conjurress, for $200, to Dr. Dodds; Doeskin, for $155, to Allen Steele; Tsara, for $210, to Tom Martin; Kiss, for $75, to L. Blume; Golden Mineral, for $1,000, to T. D. Martin.

MEMPHIS TURFMAN INSPECTING TEXAS.

Memphis, Tenn., November 15.—John W. Schorr, George C. Bennett, Joseph Mancini and Frank P. Coleman, local turfmen, left tonight for Texas to inspect extensive interests in the rice growing industry of the gulf coast, their purchase representing a vast amount of land which was bought soon after it became apparent that an attack would be made on the racetrack interests in this state.

PIMLICO FALL MEETING STATISTICS.

Twelve days of racing at the Pimlico autumn meeting caused the distribution of $38,295 among the owners racing their horses there, a daily average of slightly more than $3,191. Of this $32,045 went to forty-two winners of $400 or more, the remainder being divided among forty-nine winners of less than $400. In the course of the meeting seventy-eight races were run, thirteen of which were steeplechases. In all respects the meeting was a success and Baltimore gives promise of becoming a highly important center of racing. The owners who won $400 or more rank as follows:
